

The resolution was then assented to.

Mr. Dennis appeared in the senate.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered a resolution relating to internal improvement, and to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, which was read the first time and referred to the committee on internal improvement.

Also a bill entitled, an act to confirm the proceedings of the justices of the levy court of Somerset county, which was read the first time.

The senate proceeded to the consideration of the supplement to the act against excessive usuary, the same being the order of the day.

Mr. Forrest moved to postpone the consideration of the said bill until to-morrow, and the question was put, and determined in the negative.

The bill was then read the third time, and the senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

Thursday, January 24, 1828.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on yesterday, except Mr. Thomas.

The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The resolution relative to the Baltimore hospital yesterday assented to by the senate, was sent to the house of delegates.

On motion the supplement to the act for the benefit of Benjamin Burosh, late of Kent county deceased, passed December session 1825, chapter 217. This day entitled to a third reading, was postponed.

The senate proceeded to the consideration of the unfinished business of yesterday, being the bill entitled a supplement to the act, entitled, an act against excessive usury, the question before the senate being on the passage of the bill, and after considerable discussion the question was put, "shall the bill pass?" The yeas and nays being required appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Marriott, Prest.	Dennis	Heath,
Herbert,	Kennedy	Nelson,
Sewell—7.
